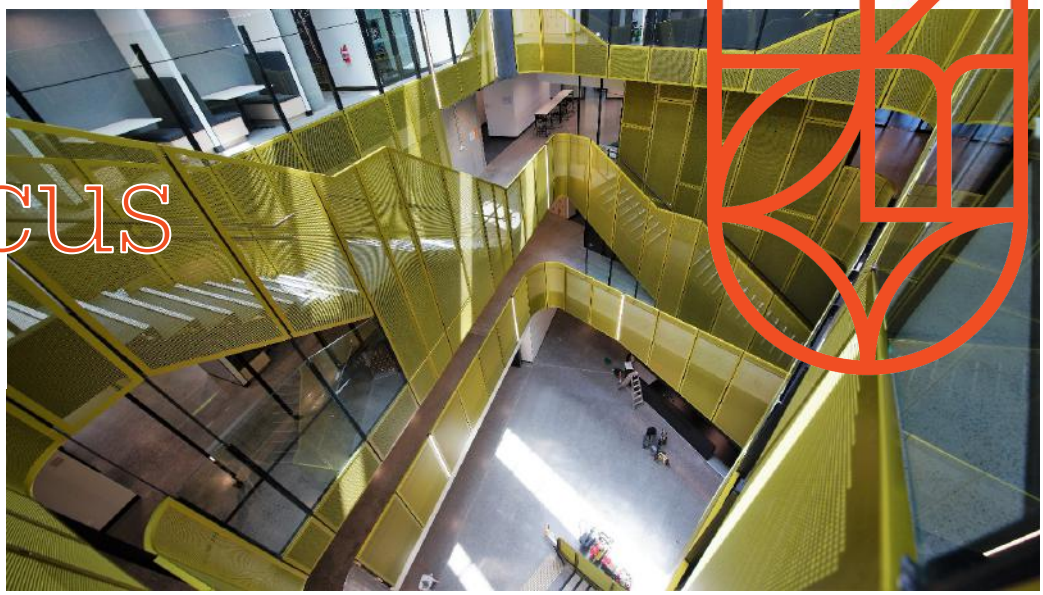
In Focus



Your Coeducational School - To Create, To Prepare, To Achieve. Make a Difference.

"Truth telling about the Aboriginal experience in our country is not only key to a brighter future for Aboriginal children but is also not something to be afraid of. Through truth - healing, reconciliation and understanding will truly begin."
Colin Simpson

From the Foundation Principal

It is time to say sorry. It is time to move forward together. To the stolen generations, I say the following: as Prime Minister of Australia, I am sorry. On behalf of the government of Australia, I am sorry. Keven Rudd, February 14, 2008

This Sunday 26 May is National Sorry Day. National Sorry Day is a significant day for all Australians, especially Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and communities across the nation.

National Sorry Day marks the anniversary of the tabling in Federal Parliament of the Bringing Them Home Report of the National Inquiry into the Separation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children from Their Families, on 26 May 1997. On National Sorry Day we recognise the grief, suffering and loss suffered by the Stolen Generations. We say to our First People we respect you. We honour your history and your knowledge and care of the land. A land we now share with you. We acknowledge you never ceded your sovereignty and we desire to work, with you, to create a brighter future for all Aboriginal people.

Respectful acknowledgment

Our school is located on the land of the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, we pay our respects to them. They are the Traditional Custodians of our Land.

We would also like to pay respect to the Elders both past and present of the Kulin Nation and extend that respect to other Indigenous Australians.

As a school, we aim to embrace difference in its many forms. In culture, gender and religion. We ask you to respect everyone, yourself included.
